

LNf 2018: THE ASIAN INFLUENCE IN THE SIERRA

Inspirational & Educational Series Brings Community, Arts and Families Together
Presented by the LET'S NEVER FORGET SERIES in partnership with the City of Auburn

Come join us in supporting this wonderful event!!

The Let's Never Forget Series – The Asian Influence in the Sierra will be presented on Friday and Saturday, April 6-7, 2018, in Auburn, California. Events are planned to engage and inspire, including guided tours on Friday of Myo-Wa-En Garden of Peace and Tranquility; a Dinner and Gala on Friday evening at the Buddhist Church in Penryn. On Saturday, we will present FREE to the public: live entertainment, including Taiko drummers, an art show (in collaboration with the Auburn Arts Commission), cultural displays and short films at Auburn City Hall.

Join us as we honor the Asian Influence – and their numerous accomplishments: including the construction of the Railroad, their place in Gold Mining History, the development of agriculture in Placer County that still exists today, mercantile families who provided goods to our area, and the Eastern influence on medicine. We will also recall the Chinese Exclusion Act of 1882 and the World War II era Executive Order 9066, which sent Japanese families in our region to government Internment Camps, though many young men enlisted to defend our nation with great honor and distinction.

About the Series

Founded in 2014, and presented by The Let's Never Forget Series and the City of Auburn, the Let's Never Forget series covers a changing theme each year based on culturally significant events in history. Each theme will have made a national or global impact and also had strong ties to Auburn and the Placer County region. Our goal is to engage residents and visitors of all ages in the topic, with the intent of inspiring our audience to continue on their own exploration... and to Never Forget.
